This recipe is BEST made with leftover white rice!

I want fried rice but I don't have any leftover rice! What do I do?

No problem! Just cook up some white rice and then spread it flat onto a baking sheet or large plate. Pop it into the fridge for about 2 hours and let it dry out a bit.

If we make Chicken Broccoli Casserole or Pineapple Sesame Chicken, I always make a little extra rice to pop into the fridge for fried rice later in the week.
