Ingredients

- 2 pounds potatoes *about 4 potatoes
- 1 tablespoon olive oil
- 1 red onion finely chopped
- 1 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1 teaspoon onion powder
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoon panko bread crumbs

Instructions

- Fill a large bowl with cold water and set aside.
- Peel the potatoes and shred them with a box grater or the shredder attachment of a food processor.
- Put the shredded potatoes in the bowl of water and let them rest for 20 minutes.
- Preheat your air fryer to 400°F (200° C).
- Drain and rinse the potatoes. Wipe the bowl out with a paper towel, and put the potatoes back in the bowl. Microwave them for 3 minutes.
- Transfer the potatoes to a paper towel or a clean tea towel.. Cover them with another paper towel and squeeze out any excess water. If using a tea towel, squeeze as much water out as you can.
- Transfer the shredded potatoes back to the bowl and add the olive oil, chopped red onion, garlic powder, onion powder and breadcrumbs.
- Spray your air fryer with cooking spray to prevent sticking.
- Shape the mixture into individual disks shapes and put them in the air fryer in a single layer. You might need to work in batches, depending on how big your air fryer is.
- Air fry for 15 minutes, flipping once half way through.

Notes

1. Store leftover hash browns in the fridge in an airtight container. They'll stay fresh for 3-5 days.
2. To freeze hash brown patties, line a baking tray with parchment paper and spread the hash browns out evenly on the tray. Freeze for 2 hours. Transfer the hash browns to an airtight container (or freezer bag), and freeze for up to 3 months.
