

The holidays are not the same unless there is fudge in the house. I admit that I had quit making fudge due to the time it takes to do so. However, there is now a fudge that can be made in % minutes

This is a recipe you need to try and keep handy. You can make this at any time and have fudge when you want.

I am a big fan of Paula Deen. She has been one of my inspirations! One of my favorite recipes is her 5-minute fudge. This recipe is pretty straightforward. All you need are just a couple of simple ingredients to whip this up. Prep this in five minutes and you'll have the most delicious fudge ready in no time!

Making fudge is one of my obsessions. All it takes is one tiny step to tickle the taste buds. I love this Paula Deen's 5-minute fudge recipe because I get to make my favorite fudge without spending eternity in the kitchen! This recipe is insanely simple, even a child could pull this off! This 5-minute fudge is the perfect dessert for busy days. The best part about this recipe is this is easily customizable according to your mood!

Table of Contents

- Ingredients
- How To Make It

Ingredients

1 and $\frac{2}{3}$ cups white sugar

$\frac{2}{3}$ cup evaporated milk

1 tablespoon unsalted butter

½ teaspoon salt

1 (6 ounce) packages milk chocolate chips

16 large marshmallows

1 teaspoon pure vanilla extract

1 cup chopped nuts

How To Make It

Step 1: Add the sugar, milk, butter and salt together in a saucepan. Then cook for 5 minutes, while stirring constantly.

Step 2: Add in chocolate chips while stirring and cook until it melts. Then remove from heat, add marshmallows, vanilla and nuts and stir well.

Step 3: Pour into an 8-inch pan, leave it to cool and cut into squares. Serve!